7. ([redacted] - GLC) By way of follow up to my inquiry, Miss Waskewich, State Department, advised that a Mr. Burke, on the [redacted] Desk in State, had in hand copies of the correspondence between [redacted] and Senator Stuart Symington concerning Communists in [redacted]. The original of [redacted] was addressed to the DCI and a copy was supposed to have been sent to Assistant Secretary of State Robert F. Woodward. However, neither we nor State Department have received direct communication from [redacted] and this office has advised [redacted] that his letter to the Director has not been received. I will talk further with Symington's office on this.

8. ([redacted] GLC) I talked with Robert Smart, House Armed Services Committee staff, and asked him if there was any feeling in the Committee concerning an Agency briefing on the 22nd of May. Smart said that unless the Agency had any important information which it felt should be brought to the Committee's attention, he suggested that we defer our next briefing to June. Smart added this comment "I think we are meeting often enough to keep the wolves from the door."
